New Graduate Student Orientation, January 12, 2017
THANK YOU, AMANDA!
GSIE Associate Dean

Dr. Patricia R. Koski
Associate Dean for the Graduate School
Ph.D. in Sociology
pkoski@uark.edu
GSIE Dean

Dr. Kim LaScola Needy
Dean of the Graduate School and International Education
Ph.D. in Industrial Engineering
GSIE Associate Dean

Dr. Curt Rom
Associate Dean for International Education
Ph.D. in Horticulture
To Contact or Find Us

• Graduate School
• Graduate and International Recruitment and Admissions
• Sponsored Student Programs

213 Gearhart Hall
575-4401
http://graduate-and-international.uark.edu/
• Office of International Students and Scholars (ISS)

104 Holcombe Hall
479-575-5003 (phone)
479-565-7084 (fax)
Email: iss@uark.edu
http://international-students.uark.edu/
To Contact or Find Us (continued)

• Office of Study Abroad and International Exchange
  722 West Maple Street
  479-575-7582
  http://studyabroad.uark.edu

• Spring International Language Center
  Uptown Campus, 1001 N. Sain
  479-575-7600
  www.uark.edu/silc
The Graduate School

• Provides information to students, faculty and staff
• Involves students in decision making
• Creates and enforces policies
• Monitors student progress
• Advocates for the student
• Ensures quality of degrees
• Seeks and celebrates diversity
Office of International Students and Scholars

• Ensures institutional compliance with the federal regulations governing non-immigrant students and scholars

• Facilitates the retention, outreach and graduation of international students
Office of Study Abroad and International Exchange

Study Abroad and International Exchange provides opportunities for students to gain a global perspective through study and research outside of the United States.

Graduate students should explore overseas opportunities with their academic advisors and contact the Office of Study Abroad for information about programs and funding opportunities.

studyabroad.uark.edu
Remember

The Graduate School (and International Education) is YOUR Dean’s office.
Being Successful

• To be successful in graduate school, you must be proactive.

• You have certain rights as a member of our community, but you also have certain responsibilities.
Rights and Responsibilities

• Know the requirements and rules of the Graduate School and your program
• Know the unwritten assumptions and things taken-for-granted by your program
• Take advantage of both formal and informal social activities

Ask for help if you need it!
Places to Find Assistance

- Studentaffairs.uark.edu
- Center for Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)
- Health Promotion and Education
- Center for Community Engagement
- Center for Educational Access
- Veterans Resource & Information Center
- Quality Writing Center

- Graduate School and International Education
  http://graduate-and-international.uark.edu/graduate/current-students/orientation.php
Rights and Responsibilities

As a member of a diverse community, you have the responsibility to respect and honor differences. This is what makes our community strong and provides the best possible educational experience. Similarly, you have the right to be treated with respect.
Responsibilities

As a graduate student, you also have the responsibility to:
• Refrain from academic misconduct
• Refrain from research misconduct
• Report instances of academic or research misconduct
• Strive for your best
• Advocate for yourself
Academic Integrity Policy

honesty.uark.edu

Sanction points = 3.0 or more. The student will be immediately and permanently expelled.
As a community of scholars,

• we uphold academic integrity and our Honor Statement as foundational to appropriate conduct within the university setting. The fundamental trust that work presented as one’s own truly represents one’s own intellect and effort underlies our mission as an educational, research and service institution; moreover, this trust is central to our peers’ recognition of the value of a University of Arkansas degree.
A Final Word

Being a successful graduate student requires you to think and act like a member of your profession, be proactive on your own behalf, and ask for help when you need it.

Remember that the Graduate School is your Dean’s Office!