Course was inactive due to personnel shortage. However, recent personnel changes allows this course to be offered in Spring 2015

Combined with NUTR 4273 that is taught every Spring. This class needs to remain.

This course has been revived for the planning minor. See the latest in CIM

We have decided to start offering this course in the summers as needed.

UACS courses need to be available per program proposal that created the degree

Spring 2014 taught as special topics 2 credits; future could teach as 3 credit course

Spring 2015 being taught as 3 credit special topics; expect to keep course but increase to 3 credits in future

Course is part of new online program recently approved

ECON 3633, Economics of Advertising – activate course – Plans are in place for Gary Ferrier to resume teaching this course in spring 2016. It fits well with the College’s strategic objectives, the retail major, and the possible School of Retail.
